Entry Form and Regulations

Rules and Regulations

Fiction, Documentary, Experimental and Animation films (max. 10 min) can be submitted for the selection. Exceptions can be made.

Required information via E-mail include:

Filled in entry form

2 digital stills from the film (300dpi) as .jpg

Recent photograph of the director (300dpi) as .jpg

The entry form has to be send to the festival organizers of ISFF Detmold before the submission deadline, including the required materials and a preview copy. The film copies should be subtitled in English. Otherwise the submission will be not selected. It is also requested for German films.

The submissions will be selected by the organizers of the festival. All the decisions are final. Legal process is ruled out.

Your films should be send either via upload or via digital medium.

Please send your film copies to:

International Short Film Festival Detmold
Charles-Lindbergh-Ring 10
D-32756 Detmold

All deliveries from Non-EU countries must be marked as follows:

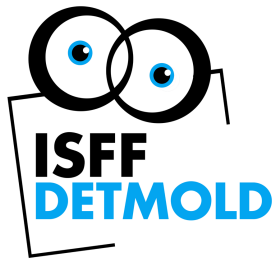

„Non-commercial value – for cultural purposes only“ and with film copies from Non-EU countries, please include a „Proforma invoice“ with a print value of less then 20 USD.

Accreditations can be applied for before the submissin deadline. Upon request, we partially refund travel expenses and assist by organizing private accommodations.

Each author is responsible for the content of the work submitted and responsible for the acquisitions of the rights and explicitly exempts the organizer from possible legal recourse regarding unauthorized usage.

I hereby authorize the representation of my film for non-commercial purposes at other international film festivals as a part of ISFF Detmold selection.

The signatures of the applicants implies the acceptance of the festival regulations.
